Fundraising movie night (Update):

"Kapodistrias - The Governor"

Hello members and friends of the Greek Museum,

The response has been truly overwhelming for our fundraising screening of "Kapodistrias, The Governor." Because the first hall sold out so quickly, we have moved the event to a larger auditorium within the same venue, ensuring more seats are available for our community. Only a few seats remain.

Please don't wait until the last moment — seats are filling quickly.

I would also like to thank all the members and friends of the Museum for supporting our fundraising screening by purchasing tickets.

If there are people who may miss out once the event is sold out, we kindly ask them to email us and let us know that they would like us to schedule an additional screening, and how many tickets they would be interested in reserving.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact Panagiotis Mavraidis (Treasurer) on 0426-211-966.

Storyline:

Set in the late 19th century, the film tells the true story of Ioannis Kapodistrias, the greatest Greek statesman and the first Governor of Greece after its liberation from the Ottomans. Guided by integrity, compassion, and a deep sense of justice, Kapodistrias dedicates his life to defending the freedom and dignity of his people. In his struggle to rebuild the nation, he sacrifices personal happiness, including the love of his life, and confronts the corruption and hostility of powerful forces. Despite foreseeing his tragic end, he accepts his fate with serenity, giving his life for his homeland. Through his sacrifice, he attains the ultimate form of freedom-one that transcends politics and embodies the spirit of selfless service.
